Reflections of

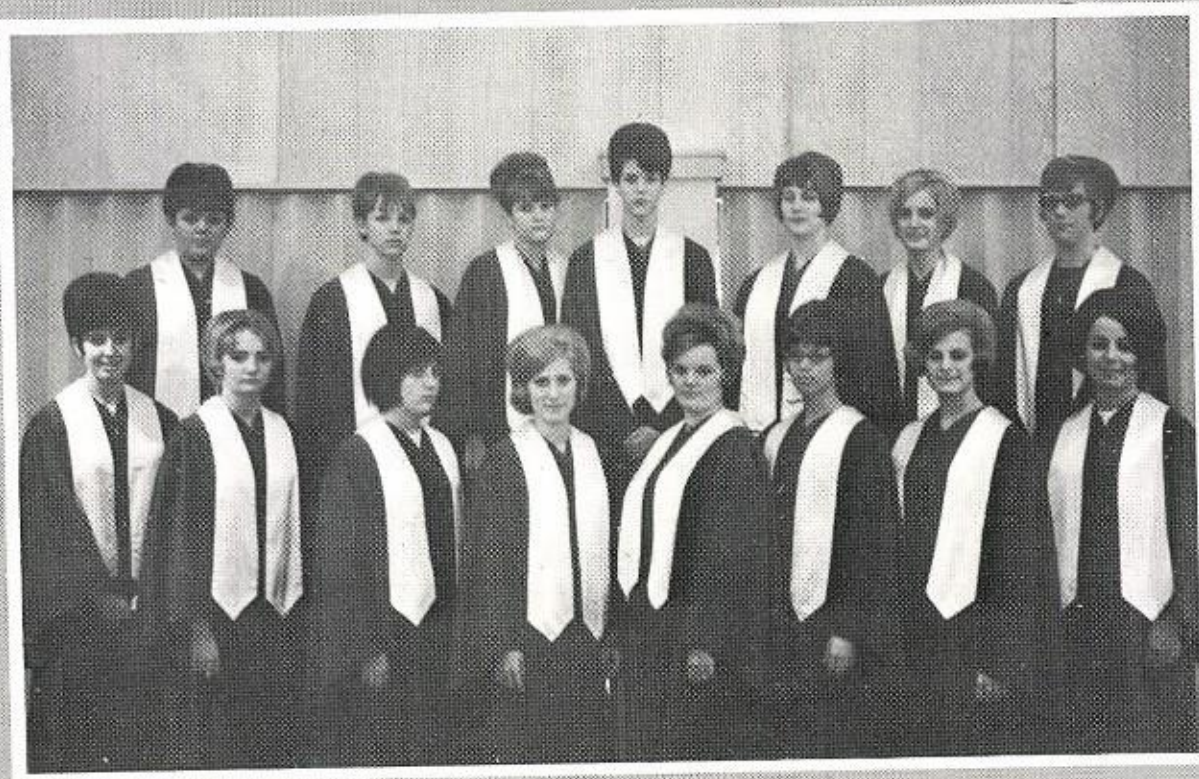

Foreword

The 1968 EAGLE reflects you, the people who make O.H.S. a reality. Your faces are many and varied. You are the teacher; leading, guiding, directing. You are the student; seeking the limitless horizons of knowledge. You are the athlete, the class president, the cheerleader, the bandsman.

The EAGLE has attempted to capture you in your different moods and phases of school life. Yesterday, you were a happy face, today saddened, and tomorrow tearful yet eager to meet the world with vibrant anticipation.

To reflect the story of one year's memories in O'Donnell High School has been the ultimate goal of the EAGLE Staff. We hope this yearbook will help you to remember forever your years spent here.

The Junior class worked long and hard to present the play, FINDERS CREEPERS, to the public this year. Some of the cast are shown taking a break from rehearsal to discuss problems they are having with their lines.

Hours of rehearsal and working on lines go into the making of a play. Then the big night arrives! Mrs. Hopkins, class sponsor, adds make-up and wrinkles to Judy Caswell, who played Granny in FINDERS CREEPERS.

This was a familiar sight seen on Freshman Day. Fish of all shapes and sizes hit the dirt when a Senior yelled, "Air Raid". THOMPSON - SMITH VOWS EXCHANGED HERE

Michelle Smith Thompson

Double ring nuptials were repeated by Michelle Marie Smith and James Ghy Thompson June 1st at 4 p.m. in United Methodist Church. Rev. Oland Butler, pastor of the church, read the vows.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson are the parents of the couple.

Pre-nuptial prelude was played at piano by Tami Thompson, sister of the groom. The traditional wedding march and recessional were played by Mrs. Arld Moore, organist.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was dressed in a formal length gown of white peau de sole fashioned with a deep scoop neckline. The high rise bodice, over laid with lace was banded in satin and was repeated on the long lace sleeves above the elbow. The detachable chapel train was edged in lace. Her three tiered bridal veil of illusion was held by a cluster of forget-me-nots sprinkled with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Symbbium orchids surrounded by stephanotis and baby breath.

Honor attendants were Loretta Porter and Rock Eicke. David McLaurin and Rickey Coung, seated guests. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall with the bridal couple couple assisting in the receiving line by their parents. Miss Joan Thompson sister of the groom presided at the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a two piece dress of peacock blue with white accessories and the orchids from her corsage.

YOU CAN TAKE US FOR GRANTED

You switch on a lamp, and there's light. You set the thermostat, and there's comfort. You turn on the TV, and there's entertainment.

When you use handy, ever-present electricity, chances are you never stop to think of the effort, time and equipment involved in generating it and delivering it to your home.

And there's no need for you to ponder it. We're thinking and working every day, to see that you have a continuing supply of electric energy. In fact, we were considering your present needs years ago, and right now we're planning for your future electrical requirements.

So go ahead. Take us for granted. We wouldn't have it any other way.

ALMA MATER

On O'Donnell's eastern border,
Poised against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Onward, upward, ever forwards;
Watchword: Never fail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail O'Donnell, Hail!

This is not the end.
It is not even the
beginning of the end.
It is rather the end of the beginning.

— Winston Churchill
